9. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Should any difference arise between the persons bound by this Agreement concerning its interpretation, application, operation, or any alleged violation thereof, including any question governing the dismissal or suspension of any employee bound by the Agreement, and including any question as to whether any matter is arbitrable, there shall be no stoppage of work on account of such difference and an earnest effort shall be made to settle the difference in the following manner:

9.1 Step 1

Within ten (10) working days of the date on which the incident giving rise to the grievance occurred, or the date when the employee(s) first became aware of the incident, whichever is later, the employee(s) shall submit the grievance in writing, including the particulars of the alleged violation and the remedy being sought, to an exempt manager designated by the Chief Librarian. Should this exempt manager be unable to settle the matter following receipt of the written grievance within ten (10) working days, Step 2 shall be invoked.

9.2 Step 2

Within ten (10) days of being referred to Step 2, a Grievance Committee of the Union and a Grievance Committee of the Employer shall discuss their respective points of view with the Chief Librarian or designate who shall render a decision within ten (10) days of hearing the matter. Failing settlement at this Step the matter may be referred to Arbitration.

Such representatives shall endeavour to select a third member who shall be Chair. Should the representatives fail to select such third member within ten (10) working days from the appointment of the last representative, either party may request the Director of the Collective Agreement Arbitration Bureau to appoint a Chair. The expenses and compensation of the representatives selected by the parties shall be borne by the respective parties. The expenses and compensation of the Chair shall be shared equally between the parties.
- (b) Following the establishment of the Board of Arbitration, it shall report its decision on the grievance. The majority decision of the Board of Arbitration shall be final and binding on all persons bound by this Agreement.
- (c) In the event the Board of Arbitration finds that an employee has been dismissed or suspended for other than proper cause, the Board of Arbitration may direct the Employer to reinstate the employee and pay to the employee a sum equal to the wages or salary lost by reason of such suspension or discharge, or such lesser sum as in the opinion of the Board of Arbitration is fair and reasonable or make such other order as it considers fair and reasonable having regard to the terms of the Collective Agreement between the parties.

9.4 Time Limits

Extensions to the time limits of ten (10) working days herein above may be agreed upon by mutual consent of the parties. In any case where a grievance has not been advanced to Arbitration within ninety (90) calendar days from the conclusion of Step 2, the grievance is deemed to be abandoned.

10. SENIORITY

10.1 General

The parties hereto recognize that all employees are entitled to a measure of employment security, based on seniority; and that the employee shall accrue certain preference in this respect as provided in this Agreement.

10.2 Seniority Defined

Seniority is defined as the length of accumulated hourly service in the bargaining unit since the last date of hire and shall be used in determining preference or priority for promotion, transfer, layoff, and recall, in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement, provided the employee has the skill, knowledge, and ability to perform the duties of the position. Seniority shall operate on a bargaining unit-wide basis.

10.3 Calculation of Seniority - Regular Full-Time and Regular Part-Time Employees

Seniority for Regular Full-Time Employees and Regular Part-Time Employees shall be calculated on the accumulation of straight time hours from the last date upon which the employee commenced regular employment with the Employer. Auxiliary hours performed after January 1, 2016 will be used in the calculation of seniority for Regular Full-Time and Regular Part-Time Employees.

10.4 Probationary Period

- (a) Newly hired Regular Full-Time Employees and Regular Part-Time Employees shall be considered to be on a probationary basis up to the completion of six (6) months' satisfactory employment. For Regular Part-Time Employees, the probationary period shall be the same number of hours as a full-time employee would work during the applicable six (6) month time period.
- (b) The probationary period shall be for the purpose of determining an employee's suitability for regular employment. During the probationary period employees shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of the applicable provisions of the Collective Agreement.
- (c) Where a Regular Full-Time Probationary Employee is absent for more than ten (10) working days or where a Regular Part-Time Probationary Employee is absent for more than seventy (70) hours during the probationary period described in paragraph (a) above, the probationary period may be extended at the discretion of the Employer for no more than the number of days or hours absent.
- (d) With the agreement of the Union and where the Employer has not yet been able to determine the suitability of the employee, the probationary period described in paragraph (a) above may be extended a further period not exceeding sixty (60) calendar days, and in such an event the employee and the Union shall be notified in writing of such extension.
- (e) After completion of the probationary period, seniority shall be effective from the original date of hire as a Regular Full-Time or Regular Part-Time Employee.

10.5 Seniority List

The Employer shall maintain a seniority list showing the date upon which each employee's service commenced and the accumulation of hours. An up-to-date seniority list shall be sent to the Union semi-annually during the months of January and July.

10.6 Retention of Seniority

Seniority shall be retained and accumulated on the following basis:

- (a) Employees who are laid off after six (6) months but less than one (1) year's service shall retain seniority for a period of six (6) calendar months;
- (b) Employees who are laid off after one (1) year's service shall retain their seniority for a period of one (1) year;
- (c) Absence due to a bona-fide sickness, provided such sickness is attested to by a qualified medical practitioner;
- (d) Authorized leave of absence;
- (e) Absence while serving in the Armed Forces, during a national emergency for a period of ninety (90) days after honourable discharge.

10.7 Loss of Seniority

An employee shall only lose seniority in the event the employee:

- (a) is discharged for just cause and is not reinstated;
- (b) resigns;
- (c) is absent from work in excess of two (2) working days without sufficient cause or without notifying the Employer, unless such notice was not reasonably possible;
- (d) fails to return to work within ten (10) calendar days following a layoff and after being notified by registered mail to do so, unless through sickness or other just cause, provided, however, that the ten (10) calendar days commences on the date the Employer registers the notification of recall. It shall be the responsibility of the employee to keep the Employer informed of the employee's current address;
- (e) is laid off for a period longer than the applicable seniority retention period as set out in Article 10.6 (a) and (b).

10.8 Reverting Without Loss of Seniority

Regular Full-Time Employees and Regular Part-Time Employees who transfer to positions made available by augmenting the regular staff or by a special project of limited duration shall upon completion of said assignment be returned to their former positions without loss of seniority and scheduled rate of pay.

10.9 Employees Filling Positions Made Available by a Re-assignment

Temporary Full-Time Employees and Auxiliary Employees employed to fill those positions made available by the re-assignment of Regular Full-Time Employee and Regular Part-Time Employee positions shall be laid off. Employees laid off shall retain their seniority as provided in clause 10.8.

10.10 Temporary Full-Time and Auxiliary Employees Applying for Vacancies

- (a) Temporary Full-Time Employees and Auxiliary Employees may apply for posted vacancies for regular positions, however, no regular position shall be filled by such employees until all provisions applying to Regular Full-Time Employees and Regular Part-Time Employees have been fulfilled.
- (b) Notwithstanding provisions contained in this Article, it is agreed and understood that where the Temporary Full-Time Employee or the Auxiliary Employee is the successful applicant to a regular posted position, seniority as a regular employee commences from the date of appointment to a regular position.

10.11 Transfers and Seniority Outside Bargaining Unit

No employee shall be transferred to a position outside the bargaining unit without the employee's consent. If an employee is transferred to a position outside the bargaining unit, the employee shall retain for two (2) years the seniority acquired at the date of leaving the bargaining unit, but will not accumulate any further seniority. If such an employee later returns to the bargaining unit within the two (2) years, the employee shall be placed in a job consistent with the employee's seniority. Such return shall not result in the layoff or bumping of an employee holding greater seniority. Two (2) years after leaving the bargaining unit the employee shall lose all seniority rights.

11. PROMOTIONS AND STAFF CHANGES

11.1 Job Postings

- (a) When a vacancy occurs or a new position is created for Regular Full-Time Employees and Regular Part-Time Employees, the Employer shall send the posting to all employees and the Union and shall post electronically for at least seven (7) calendar days.

- (b) If the Employer deems it necessary to fill the vacancy during the posting and recruiting period, the Employer may employ a Temporary Full-Time Employee or Auxiliary Employee for a period not to exceed thirty (30) calendar days. Such period of time may be extended by mutual consent of both parties in writing.

11.2 Information in Postings

Such notice shall contain the following information: nature of position, qualifications, required knowledge and education, skills, shift, wage, or salary rate or range. Such qualifications may not be established in an arbitrary or discriminatory manner.

11.3 Method of Making Appointments

- (a) Appointments, promotions, and transfers shall be made on the basis of skill, knowledge, ability, and seniority, with seniority prevailing where skill, knowledge, and ability are relatively equal.
- (b) In any arbitration pursuant to this provision, if the Union is able to demonstrate that the senior applicant has the skill, knowledge, and ability to perform the job the Employer must establish that such skill, knowledge, and ability is not relatively equal to that of the successful candidate.
- (c) Appointments from within the bargaining unit shall be made within four (4) weeks of posting.

11.4 Trial Period

The successful applicant shall be placed on trial for a period of four (4) calendar months. Conditional on satisfactory service, such trial promotion shall become permanent after the period of four (4) calendar months. In the event the successful applicant proves unsatisfactory in the position during the aforementioned trial period, or if the employee is unable to perform the duties of the new job classification, the employee shall be returned to the employee's former position without loss of seniority and wage or salary. Any other employees promoted or transferred because of the rearrangement of positions shall also be returned to their former position without loss of seniority and wage or salary.

11.5 Increase in Hours

When a position held by a Regular Part-Time Employee or Temporary Part-Time Employee is increased in hours it shall not become a new position and the incumbent shall accept the position of the total hours.

11.6 Union Notification

The Employer agrees to notify the Union, in writing, when an employee covered by this Agreement is hired, promoted, demoted, transferred, laid-off, recalled, resigns, is suspended, or is terminated.

12. LAYOFFS AND RECALLS

12.1 Layoff and Recall Procedure

- (a) In the event of a layoff, employees shall be laid off in reverse order of seniority provided that an employee may displace a junior employee only in cases where the senior employee is qualified to fill a lower or equally rated (same pay rate) position. Employees being moved laterally shall move to the position occupied by the least senior employee in a position with the same rate of pay for which the employee is qualified.
- (b) Employees shall be recalled in order of their seniority provided they are qualified to perform the work.
- (c) Employees on recall shall retain their right of recall for a period of twelve (12) calendar months.

12.2 No New Employees

No new employees will be hired until those laid off and who are qualified to do the work have been given an opportunity of re-employment.

12.3 Notice of Layoff

The Employer shall notify, in writing, employees who have acquired seniority rights, and who are to be laid off, at least ten (10) working days prior to the effective date of layoff. If the employee has not had the opportunity to work their regular shifts during the ten (10) days referred to above, the employee shall be paid for those regular shifts for which work was not made available. The ten (10) working day notice period is not applicable in cases of inclement weather, strikes, lockouts, or other circumstances beyond the control of the Employer.

13. WORKING CONDITIONS

13.1 Hours of Work

- (a) Employees' regular hours of work shall be seven (7) hours per day, excluding one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) hour for meal time, and thirty-five (35) hours per week, Monday to Friday, inclusive.
- (b) Notwithstanding the provisions contained in the above paragraph, employees may elect to take one (1) hour for meal time.
- (c) Employees whose regular work week is other than Monday to Friday, inclusive, shall be required to work within a five (5) day work week followed by two (2) consecutive days of rest, with the first (1st) day of rest deemed to be Saturday and the second (2nd) day of rest deemed to be Sunday.

- (d) Auxiliary Employees shall be permitted to work up to seven (7) hours per day and up to thirty-five (35) hours per week, Monday to Sunday.

13.2 Overtime

- (a) Employees working less than seven (7) hours per day shall be paid at straight time rates for all hours worked up to seven (7) hours per day, then prevailing overtime rates shall be paid.
- (b) Regular Full-Time Employees, Regular Part-Time Employees, and Temporary Full-Time Employees shall be paid at overtime rates for all overtime worked:
 - (1) immediately following the employee's regular shift;
 - (2) immediately preceding the employee's regular shift consequent upon an oral or written notice given prior to the end of the employee's previous regular shift;
 - (3) at any time other than at the times set forth in (b)(1) or (b)(2) above consequent upon an oral or written notice given prior to the end of the employee's previous regular shift except as otherwise provided in Article 14.5.
- (c) Regular Full-Time Employees, Regular Part-Time Employees, and Temporary Full-Time Employees shall be paid for the performance of overtime work scheduled by the Employer under paragraph (b) at the following overtime rates:
 - (1) time and one-half (1½X) the regular hourly rate of pay for the first two (2) hours of overtime worked immediately preceding or immediately following an employee's regular shift on any regular working day of the employee;
 - (2) double (2X) the regular hourly rate of pay for all overtime in excess of the first two (2) hours thereof worked immediately preceding or immediately following an employee's regular shift on any regular working day of the employee;
 - (3) double (2X) the regular hourly rate of pay for all overtime worked at any other time than at the times set forth in (1) or (2) of Article 13.2(b); employees shall be paid a minimum of one and one-half (1½) hours at double time (2X) for pre-scheduled overtime worked pursuant to Article 13.2(b)(3).

- (d) Early Reporting

An employee who is at the work place prior to the commencement of the employee's regular shift and who is required to commence work prior to the commencement of the employee's regular shift, shall not be eligible for callout but shall be paid in accordance with the overtime provisions for the actual time worked prior to the commencement of the employee's regular shift.

- (e) Auxiliary Employees who work overtime shall be paid as follows:

- (j) Where it is medically determined, while an employee is in the two (2) year own-occupation portion of the Long Term Disability Plan, that the employee will never return to work, the employee will be advised that their position will be posted and if they were to recover within the two (2) year portion of the LTD Plan then they would be entitled to return to a comparable position.
- (k) Subject to receiving approval from the Municipal Pension Plan, the period of Long Term Disability will be considered as pensionable service.
- (l) The Employer agrees to pay the premium associated with a Long Term Disability Plan to a maximum of two dollars and seventy-five cents ($2.75) per one hundred dollars ($100.00) of benefit payable. Failure to provide proper medical certification may result in the denial of Sick Leave or Long Term Disability benefits.

17.10 Rehabilitation

Where an employee qualifies for Long Term Disability, the employee, if approved by the employee's medical doctor in consultation with the medical doctor of the carrier, may be required to enroll in a retraining or rehabilitative program for alternate employment either with the Employer or an alternate Employer in order to remain eligible under the Plans.
