

Ken Peacock
Chief Economist and Vice President, BCBC

Ken Peacock is Chief Economist and Vice President at the Business Council of British Columbia, an association representing 260 large and mid-sized companies that together account for approximately one-quarter of all jobs in the province. In this capacity, Mr. Peacock contributes to the Council's work on economic and policy issues of interest to the business community. He is the author of a number of regular Business Council publications dealing with the provincial economy and related policy matters.

Prior to joining the Business council in 2002, he was an Economist with Central 1 Credit Union, an umbrella organization for the credit unions in the province. There he advised credit unions on the outlook for the provincial economy, housing markets, and interest and exchange rates.

Ken was born and raised in BC and attained his master's degree in economics from Simon Fraser University and is a past President of the Association of Professional Economists of BC. He is a member of the BC Economic Forecast Council.
