

Catalina Rodriguez – Forte Law

Catalina has 18 years of experience as an employment lawyer. She has worked in private practice for large and small firms, as well as in-house counsel for a large retailer where she also held an HR leadership position. Prior to joining Forte Law, she was Head of Employee Relations for the Canada operations of a global bank. At Forte Law, Catalina has a mixed practice advising employers in all sectors, and employees. She is also a facilitator with StandUP Teams™ and is a trauma informed workplace investigator. Her investigation experience includes conducting bullying, harassment, and sexual harassment investigations for municipalities, crown corporations, post secondary institutions and non-profit organizations. As a mediator, Catalina assists parties with resolving disputes related to the workplace, whether the dispute is arising from personal relationship issues, or the dispute is under active litigation. Catalina is a Certified Coach and holds a CPHR designation.
