

Chantelle Nascimento

Chantelle Nascimento (She/Her), an engaging facilitator and public speaker with a rich background in education and DEI workplace training. She has worked as a training facilitator for various municipalities in the Lower Mainland, Fire and Rescue Services, Public Health organizations, public and private schools, and other industries, including mining and milling.

Drawing on her experience as a public school educator and her previous career in radio broadcasting, Chantelle brings enthusiasm and authenticity to her presentations. She specializes in guiding teams to embrace diversity, enhance communication, and foster a culture of equity and inclusivity. With a unique perspective as a biracial Canadian, Chantelle navigates conversations on diversity and belonging with humor and compassion. She is dedicated to helping organizations create environments where everyone can be their true, authentic selves.
